Carrington South Health Care Center and Service Employees International Union Local 627, AFL-CIO, CLC. Case 8-CA-26173

June 15, 1994

DECISION AND ORDER

BY MEMBERS STEPHENS, DEVANEY, AND COHEN

On April 8, 1994, the General Counsel of the National Labor Relations Board issued a complaint and notice of hearing alleging that the Respondent has violated Section 8(a)(1) and (5) of the National Labor Relations Act by refusing the Union's request to bargain following the Union's certification in Case 8–RC–14900. (Official notice is taken of the "record" in the representation proceeding as defined in the Board's Rules and Regulations, Secs. 102.68 and 102.69(g); Frontier Hotel, 265 NLRB 343 (1982).) The Respondent filed an answer, with an affirmative defense, admitting in part and denying in part the allegations in the complaint.

On May 9, 1994, the General Counsel filed a Motion to the National Labor Relations Board for Summary Judgment, and Brief in Support of Motion, with exhibits attached. On May 11, 1994, the Board issued an order transferring the proceeding to the Board and a Notice to Show Cause why the motion should not be granted. The Respondent filed no response.

The National Labor Relations Board has delegated its authority in this proceeding to a three-member panel.

Ruling on Motion for Summary Judgment

In its answer the Respondent admits its refusal to bargain but attacks the validity of the certification on the basis of its objections to the election in the representation proceeding.

All representation issues raised by the Respondent were or could have been litigated in the prior representation proceeding. The Respondent does not offer to adduce at a hearing any newly discovered and previously unavailable evidence, nor does it allege any special circumstances that would require the Board to reexamine the decision made in the representation proceeding. We therefore find that the Respondent has not raised any representation issue that is properly litigable in this unfair labor practice proceeding. See Pittsburgh Plate Glass Co. v. NLRB, 313 U.S. 146, 162 (1941). Accordingly, we grant the Motion for Summary Judgment.

On the entire record, the Board makes the following

FINDINGS OF FACT

I. JURISDICTION

The Respondent, an Ohio corporation with an office and place of business in Youngstown, Ohio, has been engaged in the operation of a nursing home. Annually, in the course and conduct of its business operations, the Respondent derives gross revenues in excess of $100,000 and purchases and receives goods valued in excess of $50,000 directly from points located outside the State of Ohio. We find that the Respondent is an employer engaged in commerce within the meaning of Section 2(2), (6), and (7) of the Act and that the Union is a labor organization within the meaning of Section 2(5) of the Act.

II. ALLEGED UNFAIR LABOR PRACTICES

A. The Certification

Following the election held September 9, 1993, the Union was certified on October 15, 1993, as the collective-bargaining representative of the employees in the following appropriate unit:

All full-time and regular part-time service and maintenance employees, including Nurse Aides, Rehabilitation Aides, Physical Therapy Aides, Occupational Therapy Aides, Transport Aides, Activity Assistants, Van Driver, Ward Clerk, Central Supply Employees, Housekeeping Employees, Laundry Employees, Maintenance Employees, Dietary Employees at the Employer's 850 E. Midlothian Boulevard, Youngstown, Ohio facility, but excluding Office Clerical Employees, Receptionist, Medical Records Employee, Licensed Social Workers, Licensed Physical Therapy Assistants, Certified Occupational Therapy Assistants, Massotherapist, Dietary Technician, Dietary Supervisors, Director of Nutrition, Registered Dietitians, Housekeeping/Laundry Supervisor, Nursing Supervisors, Activity Director, Managers, POC Coordinator, Assistant POC Coordinator, Quality Assurance Nurses, Licensed Practical Nurses, Vocational Students, Nurse Aide Trainees, Technical Employees, Professional Employees, Confidential Employees, Guards and Supervisors as defined in the Act and all other employees.

¹ The complaint alleges, and the Respondent admits, a request and refusal to bargain. The Respondent contends in its affirmative defense that the certification of the Union was contrary to law and denies that it has a duty to bargain. The Respondent's request that the complaint be dismissed is denied as the record evidence establishes the General Counsel's allegations and thus, summary judgment is appropriate.

The Union continues to be the exclusive representative under Section 9(a) of the Act.

B. Refusal to Bargain

Since about February 14, 1994, the Union requested the Respondent to bargain and, since about February 22, 1994, the Respondent has refused. We find that this refusal constitutes an unlawful refusal to bargain in violation of Section 8(a)(5) and (1) of the Act.

CONCLUSION OF LAW

By refusing on and after February 22, 1994, to bargain with the Union as the exclusive collective-bargaining representative of employees in the appropriate unit, the Respondent has engaged in unfair labor practices affecting commerce within the meaning of Section 8(d) and Sections 8(a)(5) and (1) and 2(6) and (7) of the Act.

REMEDY

Having found that the Respondent has violated Section 8(a)(5) and (1) of the Act, we shall order it to cease and desist, to bargain on request with the Union, and, if an understanding is reached, to embody the understanding in a signed agreement.

To ensure that the employees are accorded the services of their selected bargaining agent for the period provided by the law, we shall construe the initial period of the certification as beginning the date the Respondent begins to bargain in good faith with the Union.
